Yiğit Özen is a painter and spatial designer based in Luxembourg. He works mainly in acrylic, and builds the human figure out of accumulated cells, lobes and fragments rather than fixed anatomical contour. Across paintings made between Istanbul, Milan and Luxembourg, recurring figures, birds and drawn provisional structures move between observation, containment and instability. After several years given largely to spatial and XR practice, Özen returned to painting in 2026 with a new body of work.

Yiğit Özen was born in Istanbul in 1994 and trained as an architect. He has painted since 2018, in Istanbul, Milan and Luxembourg, and works today from a studio in Luxembourg. From 2020 the studio work went largely to spatial and XR design, and the canvases thin out to a single commission in 2023 before the painting resumes in 2026. He is the founder of decentralize design, Milan, and of Virtually Ever After, Luxembourg.
